THE SHADWELL STALLIONS IN 2024

A letter to breeders

Dear Breeder,

It has been yet another year of tremendous racing success for Shadwell and I am delighted to announce the arrival of Mostahdaf to our stallion roster in 2024. He will be joining the UK-based stallions as they move to stand at the newly refurbished, historic Beech House Stud in Newmarket.

Mostahdaf was an outstanding winner of the Group 1 Prince of Wales's Stakes and Group 1 Juddmonte International Stakes this year, a remarkable historic double as only two horses have won both races in the same season in the last 50 years. By Champion sire Frankel out of the Dubawi mare, Handassa, a Stakes winner over a mile, his pedigree is packed with natural speed. Mostahdaf is a half-brother to dual Group 1 winning miler Nazeef and is closely related to two Group 1 winning Champion Sprinters Pastoral Pursuits and Goodricke. A winner himself over seven furlongs on debut, he is a quality, well balanced, imposing individual with an athletic walk.

Baaeed, the highest-rated turf horse in the world for a decade, attracted an exceptional book of 162 mares. Given his extraordinary ability, tremendous pedigree and faultless conformation, he is a truly unmissable stallion prospect.

Minzaal, Europe's highest-rated sprinter in 2022, was incredibly well received in his first year at stud covering 161 mares. He ticks a lot of boxes for Irish commercial breeders, being the highest-rated son of Mehmas, as well as being an extremely good-looking horse with astonishing speed. A Gimcrack winner at two and a devastating 3¾ length winner of the Sprint Cup at four, we are expecting him to prove very popular again in his second season.

Mohaather has been strongly supported since retiring to stud covering 366 mares in his first three seasons. We were very impressed with his first yearlings and it was great to see so many good judges behind him at the sales. He stamps his stock with his own good looks and athleticism. Given the fact he was a Group winner at two himself, we have high hopes for him in 2024.

Awtaad was the sire of two Group/Grade 1 winners in 2023, Anmaat in the Group 1 Prix d'Ispahan and Anisette in the Grade 1 Del Mar Oaks. He is 'Ireland's best value sire' (Irish Field, 03/06/23). A Classic winner himself and a regular 'black-type' producer, he covered a good-sized book in 2023 and we believe he offers excellent value.

We would like to thank all our clients for supporting our stallions in 2023 and our team look forward to discussing your requirements with you for the forthcoming season.

Kind regards,

Stephen Collins
European Bloodstock
Manager

SHADWELL'S NEW IDENTITY

Building on the past, looking to the future

The Icon

Typography

SHADWELL

The Icon

The creation of a contemporary, instantly recognisable icon from the famed striped cap and epaulettes of the Shadwell silks.

Typography

Updated typography to increase legibility online, in print and when stitched onto clothing, whilst retaining the overall elegance.

Uniting the European operation

In November 2023, Shadwell introduced a new brand identity which united all of the European arms; Nunnery Stud and Beech House Stud in the UK, Derrinstown Stud in Ireland and the racing operation.

This includes a new logo which represents a contemporary but also instantly recognisable turn to the unifying objective, the success of all those connected to the famous blue and white silks.

Since Sheikh Hamdan's first winner at Redcar in 1980, the silks have grown to become a constant presence at the top-level of international horse racing.

They have since been carried by a succession of champions including Nashwan, Salsabil, Dayjur, Invador, Taghrooda, Battaash and Baaeed.

Now, under the guidance of Sheikha Hissa on behalf of her family, Shadwell remain one of the leading forces in the sport with our silks remaining a constant presence in racecourse winners' enclosures around the world.
